Bulldogs in Action—In every corridor, schoolroom, and office; in the cafeteria, gymnasium, and bus; on every sports field; between students, faculty, administration, and community—all pictured here for you to treasure, to relive, and to savor each time you turn these pages. The Tawana staff presents this 1969-70 edition to a very special person—you.

We sincerely hope that you will enjoy these pages as much as we have enjoyed preparing them.
The Tawana staff takes great pride in this opportunity to acknowledge and express its appreciation to a man who deserves much credit.

Mr. Wright, we the Tawana staff take pleasure in dedicating this 69-70 edition of the Tawana to you. Without the master's touch this book would never have been completed. It was your time, effort, and devotion that kept the assembly line going.

Words cannot adequately express our boundless pride in your work and our gratefulness to you. Thank you for your sacrifices for us.
Bulldog action often originates in the administrative offices of THS as new programs are instituted and old ones updated, worthwhile extra-curricular activities are fostered, plans for school plant improvement are reviewed and approved, and problems involving individual students, their parents, and the community are solved in order that Trenton R-IX may consider itself one of the best school systems in Missouri.
Assistance for all. Through these offices flows the action of peacemaking, planning, checking, counseling, disciplining, and contacting. Mr. Dennis and Mr. Gebhart and their staffs act as intermediaries for students, parents, staff, and patrons of Trenton High School. All are welcome, for service is their motto.
Business

To meet the demands of the complex business world virtually all THS students enroll in one or more of the twelve business courses directed by Mrs. Claycomb, Mrs. Ramsbottom, and Mrs. Wilson to become secretaries, bookkeepers, clerical typists, and business machine operators in automated offices where they can contribute profitably to society and provide in some measure for their own welfare. Mr. Brassfield and DECA are synonymous, challenging distributive education students to actively participate in the expanding fields of business management encompassing all phases of retail activity.

Education

Fine Arts

Man's urge to create has always moved him to improve his culture, so THS students create in art and music. Stroll down the art-filled halls to feast your eyes, listen to music to lift your spirits. More than one-fourth of our students enroll in art courses, and this year the THS campus will expand to Europe where students will participate in an art seminar. Assemblies and concerts presented by the vocal and instrumental sections enrich both school and community. Music and art students compete with honor in contests. The student's personal profits can be measured in a broader understanding and a richer enjoyment of life.

"Languages bind together the vast empire of human society as it is spread over the whole earth and over all time," William Wordsworth. Culture and history join as classical and modern languages blend with time. Latin, parent of all European languages and key to America's civilization, provides basic concepts of modern political, aesthetic, and intellectual life. Spanish, the most popular of modern foreign languages, supplies a ready tool for youth with an understanding of the modern foreign languages and customs, we can talk and read intelligently in our multilingual future.

To understand Man’s eternal need and unceasing quest—is the unique role of the language arts. Students learn to listen, to think, to communicate, to feel, and to judge through active participation in a study of our common heritage: language and literature. Speech and publications seek to utilize the breadth and depth of this heritage to influence positively and dramatically the destiny of mankind.

Physical Education

Mr. Noe and Mrs. Wilson direct a co-educational physical education program that simultaneously provides for individual needs and furnishes THS students an enjoyable outlet for their energies. Volleyball, badminton, shuffleboard and table tennis offer healthy activity, intramural competition arises from basketball, touch football, speed ball, softball, hockey, soccer, golf, and tennis to add sparkle to school life. Each year new activities supply variety and improve the P.E. program.

Welcome to the twilight zone.

T.H.S. action is much more than books, sports, and activities; it is food, (over 450 plates per day), clean halls and rooms, help at games, repairs on buildings and equipment, and buses full of kids twice each day and trips everywhere for games and other activities. The Season's Highlights

Dropping the first two games to Savannah and Carrollton heralded a disappointing season for the Trenton High Bulldogs, but this served as a training and organizing period, in preparation for conference play. An inexperienced defensive backfield coupled with a staggering offense hindered the Bulldogs' effectiveness against the Savannah Savages. Trenton rebounded against Carrollton with reinforced offense and a more aggressive defense, but a costly fumble and penalties along with a jolting 39 yard field goal by the Trojans in the last two minutes cost Trenton a victory.

Kirksville-Marceline: The Bulldogs sank their teeth in the race for a conference championship with two one-sided victories over Kirksville and Marceline. Trenton dominated both games from the first whistle to the final gun. Kirksville came first and fell fast within the first few minutes as Trenton trounced them 32-0! Marceline hosted the Bulldogs next, and Trenton donned scoring shoes to rumble over Marceline 46-0.
Unionville, October 10—Ray Ricono's ferocious fifty-four splashed past the Unionville Midgets 30-10 in a dreary rain-soaked game that marked the third straight victory for the Bulldogs. Trenton scored first, but Unionville's bull, Ronnie Roof, produced and bought the Midgets ahead for a short time with a T.D. and extra point. The Bulldogs raced back with two T.D.'s in the second quarter to lead at half time 22-7. The balance of the scores come in the third period with a Trenton touchdown and a 30-yard Midget field goal by "BHo" Ronnie Roof.

Milan, October 17—The hapless but ever hard-hitting Milan Wildcats found themselves the victims of the fourth straight conference win of the Bulldogs. The score tells the story as the Mighty Dogs smashed their opponents 55-0. Even though Milan was never really in the ball game, their desire and hustle was ever present and admired.

Brookfield, October 24—Continuing their winning streak the Bulldogs made it live in a row as they knocked Brookfield out of the conference race 23-9 in a hard fought ballgame, mostly determined by breaks. Brookfield tallied first with a field goal following a fumble on the Trenton 9, but the Bulldogs retaliated with a 66-yard touchdown sprint by Eric Woodard. Trenton never found themselves on the short end again as they capitalized off Brookfield's mistakes to score three more times, once on Nick Sottler's 20-yard field goal and twice on touchdowns.

Macon, October 31—By defeating Macon, the Bulldogs have set the stage for a N.C.M.C. showdown with arch-rival Chillicothe. The Bulldogs scored the first, second, and last periods of the game for a winning score of 18-8 to put the bite into Macon. The margin of victory was actually wider than the score indicates, so the outstanding Bulldogs defense held Macon to a total of 101 offensive yards while the Trenton machine rolled up 311.
Conference decided at Chilli's Veterans' Day, November 11, 1969

The Chillicothe Hornets put the sting into Trenton and wiped out any Bulldogs' hopes for a N.C.M.C. championship with a 50–12 victory in the annual Veterans' Day Football game. Trenton held the Hornets after the opening kick-off, and forced Chilli to punt. The Bulldogs then marched for three first downs, but that's the story, as Chilli took the ball over and scored, and scored, and scored. The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard in the last quarter with two touchdowns in a vain attempt to get back in the ball game.

The rivalry between Trenton and Chilli was at its highest this year since it is Chilli’s last year as an NCMC member. The friction between the teams started on Jan. 16, when Chilli defeated Trenton on the Bulldog’s home court. Fuel was added to the fire as the Bulldogs invaded the Hornets nest on Jan. 24, and walked away with the championship trophy of the Hornet’s own tourney.

The Grand finale came on Feb. 20, when once again the high-flying Hornets were shot down by the steady shooting and easy-going Bulldogs. The prestigious victory gave the Bulldogs an NCMC top spot tie.

Although the game was marred by outside disorders, it must be described as a battle of true sportsmen.

An NCMC Co-championship, first place in the Trenton and Chillicothe tournaments, and a second-place finish in the regionals, are all results of a 22 won and 2 lost record. Although plagued by poor shooting at times, the Bulldogs were topped only twice, and then by the top teams in the state: once by Chillicothe in conference action and once by St. Joe Christian Brothers in the finals of the regional tournament.

Regionals were final testing separates the best, the Bulldogs bombed Bethany and Maysville in first round action, and then squeaked by Tarkio in semi-final action. These victories set the stage for a championship showdown with St. Joe Christian Brothers. Following a good first quarter, the Bulldogs ran out of steam while C.B. seemed to be really fired up, as they led at half time by 13. The second half proved no better for the Bulldogs as C.B. won going away 95-67. Though the season ended on a sour note, it can only be termed successful.

T Club

The Trenton High School Letterman Club, formed in 1952 by C.F. Russell and D.L. Sipes, has since developed another one of the T.H.S. traditions. It is now under the leadership of R.W. (Noopy) Noe, and without a doubt is the wealthiest organization at T.H.S. The above young men are the cream of the T.H.S. athletic department.
Two score and two years ago the Future Farmers of America was organized to foster among rural boys a spirit of comradeship and to guide them in a choice of vocation. Today's jet age FFA is open to either sex and guides youth into ag-related fields. Self-supportive, the FFA maintains high standards of leadership, patriotism and scholarship. The "boys in blue," sponsor annually: Barnwarming, summer camps, tractor-pulls, and participation in district and state contests.
"To Dare is to Care," Region II project of FHA, can inspire the forty THS Future Homemakers of America under the sponsorship of Miss Harriett Meranda to accomplish the twin goals of strengthening family ties and community bonds, and of comprehending society’s problems that they might contribute to their solutions. One project, surveying youth and employer’s relationships is designed to further this purpose.

Our future homes are in good hands with training such as FHA girls receive from national and local leaders.
The Girls' Athletic Association, more familiarly known as GAA, attracted 120 girls to its membership in 1969-70, thus providing opportunities for participation in major and minor sports on individual and team basis as an extra-curricular activity. The point system determines the winners of prized awards, "Play Night," to which the public is invited, is an annual event focusing interest on GAA activities which together with the formal Christmas Ball, the social highlight of GAA, rounds out a busy life for each enthusiastic member.

The Junior Classical League (J.C.L.), a national organization composed of local classical clubs in junior and senior high schools, had more than 57,000 members in 1968-69. The Junior Classical League encourages an interest in and an appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Rome and Greece; and fosters some understanding of the debt our own culture owes that of classical antiquity.

National Honor Society

Emphasizing character, leadership, service, and scholarship is the primary aim of the National Honor Society; thus encouraging students to continue learning and education in all areas. Projects for services rendered to both school and community as well as for financing activities that benefit the members themselves are planned each year. The national scope and recognition of the society since 1921 lend it considerable prestige. Approximately 20 students are initiated annually into the Trenton Chapter of the National Honor Society which was formed February 1, 1949.
Pep Squad girls, seventy strong, dedicated to supporting our athletic teams and promoting good sportsmanship at home and abroad, play a major role in this school life. Realizing that appearance is vital, the girls purchased their own new uniforms and raised money for cheerleaders' uniforms in addition to providing funds for Cheerleader Clinic in Maryville, Missouri. Hours of rehearsal, miles in a school bus, hundreds of posters to bedeck the halls, projects for money to carry out their plans, and sincerity of purpose are the hallmarks of the TIS Pep Squad.

Smiles of OUR T.H.S. Cheerleaders
Student Council

Student Council Officers

Sitting: Sheila Serr, Treasurer; Tom Whitaker, President; Bill Zangi, Vice-President; Mary Lynne Clark, Secretary. Standing: Mr. Mike Denim, Sponsor.

To represent each Trenton High student is the goal of the Student Council endeavoring to meet the challenge of a changing society. "Bulldog Bliss," 1969 Homecoming theme, highlighted STUCO-sponsored activities. It is a treasured memory because each member, supported by an enthusiastic student body, gave unstinted effort to the project.

Future plans? Yes! Two are - a sign-Trenton High School. . . Home of the Bulldogs - will be erected and a proposed Student Congress, designed to be more thoroughly representative, receives serious consideration. Spring will find THS leaders vying for coveted STUCO offices in lively campaigns.

STUCO members willingly devote time and energy to improve student welfare in THS.

Spanish Club

Singing Villancios tradicionales and breaking the piñata initiated peon-attired Spanish students into the rapidly expanding Spanish Club last December. A party, where Latin American dishes were first tasted, highlighted the year's club activities, and two visiting senoritas bonitas from Mexico added authenticity to the affair.

President and Representative, Herb Whitehouse, Mark Owings, Paul Costello, Terry Leeper.

Standing: Bill Lehsel, Carl Sottler.
The newly-organized Science Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Arthaud and Mr. Messner, has provided much-needed inspiration for the science-oriented students. This year the club plans to pursue rocketry, taxidermy, and phases of area pollution. In accordance with national organization standards, they will attempt to foster an interest in all areas of scientific study among THS students. The annual Science Fair in May will conclude the 1969-70 Science Club activities.

Sophomores: Connie Peyton and Bob Barnes
To build memories, to record "Bulldogs In Action," to capture the spirit of THS in picture and work, and to dedicate this Tawana to YOU is the dream of and the challenge for every staff member. Each picture's lasting value to the students and faculty determined its selection.

As you turn the pages of this tribute to THS, we hope you think we've succeeded.

Newsgathering, writing, editing copy, rewriting, picture taking, delivering Trentonian, scurrying thither and yon. Deadlines, deadlines, deadlines! That's the story of their lives. Agreeing, disagreeing, too; promoting causes, criticizing attitudes, boosting our school teams, and reporting both curricular and extra-curricular activities. Wherever "it" happens, a Trentonian staffer will be there to capture the color and excitement for you.

Gaining writing skills and objectivity and judgment is the challenge of Publications I.
